EASTER SUNDAY THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD APRIL 20, 2014

Grace and peace to you on this Easter day!
Thank you for being part of our Holy Week celebrations, it truly means a great deal to me and the entire staff. Week after week, we try to make the Gospel manifest in this community, but there's something about Easter Sunday that makes it make the good news of Christ's rising from the dead especially meaningful for all of us.

If you're a long-time parishioner here at Sts. Peter & Paul, thank you for all you do to make this parish so special. If you're a new addition to the parish family or just visiting, thank you for making the effort to be with us and please know that there's a place for you all year round.

Wishing you all the blessings of Easter Joy,
Fr. Bryan

Notes From The Catholic Foundation of North Georgia

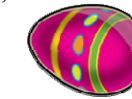

Alleluia! Jesus Christ is Risen Today: In praising Jesus today be sure to thank him for your many blessings. "How shall I make a return to the Lord for all the good He has done for me?" Psalm 116:12. Besides giving just to your children and grandchildren consider including the parish in your will or estate plans. The parish is part of your family and your gift to the parish endowment fund would help the parish for years to come. For additional information about creating your Catholic legacy, please contact Diane Duquette, Director of Gift Planning at The Catholic Foundation of North Georgia: (404) 497-9440 or dduquette@cfnga.org.

Praying PACEM IN TERRIS

And so, dearest sons and brothers, we must think of human society as being primarily a spiritual reality. By its means enlightened men can share their knowledge of the truth, can claim their rights and fulfill their duties, receive encouragement in their aspirations for the goods of the spirit, share their enjoyment of all the wholesome pleasures of the world, and strive continually to pass on to others all that is best in themselves and to make their own the spiritual riches of others. It is these spiritual values which exert a guiding influence on culture, economics, social institutions, political movements and forms, laws, and all the other components which go to make up the external community of men and its continual development. Love Once More

Have you recently married again after one or both of you lost a spouse through death or divorce? Or are you preparing to enter a remarriage? Are you forming a stepfamily together? Remarried family life is more complex and often more challenging than for first-married families, even if only one of you was married before. Couples who learn about what makes remarriage unique, and develop the skills to meet these challenges together, are much better equipped to build strong marriages. Love Once More is a one-day workshop for couples preparing for remarriage or in the first four years of remarriage. Grace and Growth Counseling Center will present Love Once More on Saturday, May 3rd, 10:00AM-5:00PM, at Holy Spirit Catholic Church, 4465 Northside Drive NW. Cost is $150 per couple and includes lunch and books. Registration is required. Please contact Beth MeEachern at bmeachern@graceandgrowth.org or (678) 235-3910 to register or for information. Couples considering this workshop for Catholic marriage preparation should first consult the clergy preparing them for marriage.
