March for Marriage

The second March for Marriage will be held in Washington, D.C. on June 19, 2014. This year's march will be an important opportunity to promote and defend the beauty of marriage as the unique two-in-one-flesh communion of husband and wife. In an April 7th letter sent to all the bishops of the United States, Bishop Richard J. Malone, chairman of the USCCB Committee on Laity, Marriage, Family Life and Youth, and Archbishop Salvatore J. Cordileone, chairman of the USCCB Subcommittee for the Promotion and Defense of Marriage, encouraged participation in the march. "This is a critical time for marriage in our country, as marriage amendments are being struck down by federal courts and appeals of these decisions are being made. We are deeply grateful for any support you can offer for this march." Check the website www.marriagemarch.org for details.

Retirement Celebration for Msgr. Patrick Bishop

On Saturday, May 17th, Transfiguration Parish in Marietta will be having a Mass of Thanksgiving on the occasion of the retirement of Msgr. Pat Bishop as well as his 25th Anniversary as Pastor of Transfiguration and the 40th Anniversary of his Ordination to the Priesthood. The Mass will be followed by a reception in Bishop Hall. Transfiguration Catholic Church is located at 1815 Blackwell Rd. NE, Marietta 30066-2911.

Praying PACEM IN TERRIS

There are three things which characterize our modern age. In the first place we notice a progressive improvement in the economic and social condition of working men. They began by claiming their rights principally in the economic and social spheres, and then proceeded to lay claim to their political rights as well. Finally, they have turned their attention to acquiring the more cultural benefits of society. Today, therefore, working men all over the world are loud in their demands that they shall in no circumstances be subjected to arbitrary treatment, as though devoid of intelligence and freedom. They insist on being treated as human beings, with a share in every sector of human society: in the socio-economic sphere, in government, and in the realm of learning and culture. (39-40)

Third Annual embrace Memorial Mass

If your loss was recent or years prior, please join embrace ministry for this very special Mass on May 7th at 7:00PM at the Cathedral of Christ the King, 2699 Peachtree Rd. NE, Atlanta 30305. A reception will follow the Mass.

2014 Eucharistic Congress

Each year the Eucharistic Congress brings together Catholics from across the Archdiocese and the country to celebrate the visible, living presence of Jesus. Archbishop Gregory, along with Bishop Talley and Bishop Zarama, ask that you join them for this year's Eucharistic Congress at the Georgia International Convention Center, June 20th and 21st. The theme of the 2014 Eucharistic Congress comes from the Gospel of Matthew 28:19 "Go and make disciples". Take this opportunity to reconnect with friends, spend quiet time in prayer and listen to powerful testimonials from Fr. Dwyer, Mother Delores Hart and Jeff Cavins.

Catholic-Orthodox Ecumenical Gathering

The next Catholic-Orthodox Ecumenical Gathering will take place at the Cathedral of Christ the King on Tuesday, May 20th at 7:00PM. The event will commemorate the 50th anniversary of the meeting of Pope Paul VI and Patriarch Athenogras I in Jerusalem and the present states of Catholic-Orthodox relations in light of that meeting. A reception will follow in Kenny Hall. His Excellency, Wilton Gregory, Catholic Archbishop of Atlanta and His Eminence Alexios, Metropolitan of the Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Atlanta will officiate. The keynote speaker will be Fr. Ronald Roberson, C.S.P. who serves as the Associate Director of the Secretariat for Ecumenical and Inter-religious Affairs at the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, in Washington, D.C.
