My family and I express our profound gratitude to parish priest, Rev. Fr. Bryan Small, and to all our parish family here at Sts. Peter and Paul for their wonderful support at the passing to eternal glory of our dear son, Alfred Nodi Nwaokoro, Jr. (Freddy). We ask for God's guidance and protection over everyone of you. May all you do bring great joy to the loving and compassionate heart of Our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

2014 Eucharistic Congress

Each year, the Eucharistic Congress brings together Catholics from across the Archdiocese and the country to celebrate the visible, living presence of Jesus. Archbishop Gregory, along with Bishop Talley and Bishop Zarama, ask that you join them for this year's Eucharistic Congress at the Georgia International Convention Center, June 20th and 21st. The theme of the 2014 Eucharistic Congress comes from the Gospel of Matthew 28:19 "Go and make disciples". Take this opportunity to reconnect with friends, spend quiet time in prayer and listen to powerful testimonials from Fr. Dwyer, Mother Delores Hart and Jeff Cavins.

Notes from The Catholic Foundation of North Georgia

Charitable Gift Annuities give you additional income:

If you are over 65 and have $10,000 or more to invest, possibly from a CD that is coming due, you may want a Charitable Gift Annuity which will give you higher rates than a CD, will give you a large tax deduction and provide you with quarterly fixed payments for the rest of your life. Here are some sample rates based on your age: Age 65- 4.7%; Age 70- 5.1%; Age 75- 5.8%; Age 80- 6.8%; Age 85- 7.8%; Age 90 and older- 9%. At your death the remainder of the Gift Annuity can go to the parish endowment fund and other charities. For a personal illustration, please contact Diane Duquette, Director of Gift Planning at The Catholic Foundation of North Georgia: (404) 497-9440 or dduquette@cfnga.org

Praying PACEM IN TERRIS

Human society can be neither well-ordered nor prosperous without the presence of those who, invested with legal authority, preserve its institutions and do all that is necessary to sponsor actively the interest of all its members. And they derive their authority from God, for, as St. Paul teaches, "there is no power but from God". In his commentary on this passage, St. John Chrysostom writes: "What are you saying? Is every ruler appointed by God? No, that is not what I mean, he says, for I am not now talking about individual rulers, but about authority as such. My contention is that the existence of a ruling authority—the fact that some should command and others obey, and that all things not come about as the result of blind chance—this is a provision of divine wisdom." God has created men social by nature, and a society cannot "hold together unless someone is in command to give effective direction and unity of purpose. Hence every civilized community must have a ruling authority, and this authority, no less than society itself, has its source in nature, and consequently has God for its author." (46)
