Thank you again for your support. If you have not made a pledge yet, there are extra pledge cards in the Welcome Ministers' closet.

Parish Goal: $47,200
Total Pledged: $47,115

Eucharistic Congress This Week

Each year the Eucharistic Congress brings together Catholics from across the Archdiocese and the country to celebrate the visible, living presence of Jesus. Archbishop Gregory, along with Bishop Talley and Bishop Zarama, ask that you join them for this year's Eucharistic Congress at the Georgia International Convention Center, Friday, June 20th and Saturday, June 21st. The theme of the 2014 Eucharistic Congress comes from the Gospel of Matthew 28:19 "Go and make disciples". Take this opportunity to reconnect with friends, spend quiet time in prayer and listen to powerful testimonials from Fr. Dwyer, Mother Delores Hart and Jeff Cavins.

Notes from The Catholic Foundation of North Georgia

Start your own endowment fund to benefit your favorite parish ministry:

Starting your own fund to benefit the parish is a wonderful way for you to memorialize or honor a loved one. It only takes $5,000 to start this fund and when the fund grows to $25,000 distributions will be made to the parish in the name of your loved one. Some people start a fund then add $5,000 a year to it and others start a fund and friends and relatives add to it due to their love of the person being honored and their love of the parish. If you would like more information about creating a personal endowment, please contact: Diane Duquette at dduquette@cfnga.org or (404) 497-9440. Please also visit our website: www.cfnga.org for information on the many ways you can create your Catholic Legacy.

Praying PACEM IN TERRIS

Hence, a regime which governs solely or mainly by means of threats and intimidation or promises of reward, provides men with no effective incentive to work for the common good. And even if it did, it would certainly be offensive to the dignity of free and rational human beings. Authority is before all else a moral force. For this reason the appeal of rulers should be to the individual conscience, to the duty which every man has of voluntarily contributing to the common good. But since all men are equal in natural dignity, no man has the capacity to force internal compliance on another. Only God can do that, for He alone scrutinizes and judges the secret counsels of the heart. Hence, representatives of the State have no power to bind men in conscience, unless their own authority is tied to God's authority, and is a participation in it. (48-49)

Final Showing!

"Restless Heart: The Confessions of Augustine" at AMC Phipps Plaza 14-Buckhead, Thursday, June 26th, 7:30PM. Luxury seating. Tix $10 in advance, $12 at door. Go to <http://RestlessHeartAtlanta.com> for tix. Previous showings were sold out. Or contact Larry Schauer at RestlessHeartAtlanta@gmail.com or (678) 770-6400. Rated PG-13. "Restless Heart" uses a historic backdrop to tell the true story of Augustine of Hippo-one of the Catholic Church's most beloved and well-known saints. Its message is as timely today as it was only a few generations after Jesus walked on Earth. It is the story of one who pursues fame and fortune without a moral compass-and the changes that occur when events lead him to see the light. It also chronicles the collapse of the Roman world and how Augustine laid the intellectual foundations of what became Europe.
