2014 Archbishop's Annual Appeal

Each year, thousands of households throughout the Archdiocese support the Archbishop's Annual Appeal. Their gifts are given to help our neighbors in north and central Georgia and around the world. Many thanks to those of you who are participating. Each gift, when combined with the gifts of thousands of other parishioners throughout the Archdiocese, makes a very real difference in the ability of the Archdiocese to provide vital ministries and services. Thank you again for your support. For those of you who have not had an opportunity to make a pledge or a gift this year, but still desire to be a part of the 2014 Appeal, there are extra pledge cards in the Welcome Ministers' closet.

Catholic Charities Atlanta's Refugee Resettlement Program

Catholic Charities Atlanta's Refugee Resettlement Program has seen an unprecedented number of refugee arrivals over the past months. This trend is expected to continue through the summer. Because of the large influx, CCA's supplies are low. They need household items to set up 60 apartments over the next two months. These apartments are for families arriving from refugee camps all over the world. Items desperately needed include furniture, pots and pans, twin size sheets and comforters, cleaning supplies, bathroom supplies, etc. If you have any of these items and can drop them off at CCA's Northlake office, please contact Kim Longshore at (678) 222-3964 or email at klongshore@catholiccharitiesatlanta.org. Additional help is needed by volunteers willing to help staff with the actual moving in and setting up of these apartments.

Praying Pacem in Terris

The application of this principle likewise safeguards the dignity of citizens. Their obedience to civil authorities is never an obedience paid to them as men. It is in reality an act of homage paid to God, the provident Creator of the universe, who has decreed that men's dealings with one another be regulated in accordance with that order which He Himself has established. And we men do not demean ourselves in showing due reverence to God. On the contrary, we are lifted up and ennobled in spirit, for to serve God is to reign. (50)

Fête du Saint Sacrement.

Chaque année, la fête du Saint Sacrement nous permet de redécouvrir des vérités importantes sur l'Eucharistie. Cette fête date du treizième siècle. A l'époque, certains pensaient que la présence de Jésus s'arrêtait à la fin de la messe. L'Église a fermement réagi contre cette affirmation. C'est ainsi qu'ont été instaurées des processions au Saint Sacrement et des temps d'adoration à l'église. La présence de Jésus dans l'Eucharistie fait partie de notre foi.

Tous les dimanches, nous nous réunissons pour célébrer l'Eucharistie. Ce mystère est si riche que l'Église nous le présente comme la source, le centre et le sommet de toute vie chrétienne. Jésus a voulu nous laisser sa présence sous la forme d'un repas. Il nous invite à nous nourrir de cette présence. L'Eucharistie est la nourriture essentielle de notre vie. Le Curé d'Ars disait : "Vous n'en êtes pas dignes mais vous en avez besoin."

Quand le peuple dans le désert se nourrit de la manne, il reconnaît que cette nourriture vient de Dieu. Il a tout à recevoir de son créateur. Nous aussi, nous reconnaissons que nous dépendons de lui. C'est important car c'est le seul moyen de ne pas devenir esclave d'un autre.

Dans la deuxième lecture, saint Paul rappelle aux chrétiens que l'Eucharistie est le pain de l'unité Christ... Cette unité à laquelle nous sommes appelés est fondée sur la communion au Christ. C'est lui qui nous rassemble et nous unit. C'est sa vie donnée à chacun qui fait notre unité.

Nous affirmons que nous sommes unis dans le Christ ; mais si nous passons nos journées sans nous saluer, sans nous regarder, sans nous parler et surtout sans nous entraider, il y a là un contresens. L'Eucharistie exige plus qu'une vague unité spirituelle : Il faut aussi que les solitudes soient brisées et que chacun fasse vraiment l'effort d'aller à la rencontre des autres. Nous ne pouvons pas dire que nous aimons Dieu si nous n'aimons pas notre prochain. On ne mange pas vraiment l'Eucharistie quand on reste indifférent à ceux qui sont à la même table que nous.

Chaque dimanche, le Christ nous invite à sa table. Nous devons tout faire pour que l'Eucharistie soit vraiment LE grand événement de la semaine. Seuls ceux qui ont un cœur de pauvre peuvent comprendre cela.

L'Eucharistie est un trésor extraordinaire. En ce jour, nous portons dans notre prière ceux et celles qui n'ont pas compris cela. Nous qui avons cette chance de pouvoir nous rassembler à l'église, nous rendons grâce à Dieu pour ce cadeau qu'il nous fait. C'est sa vie de ressuscité qu'il nous donne en partage dans nos Eucharisties.

"How wonderful it would be if we could help our children and grandchildren to learn thanksgiving at an early age. Thanksgiving opens the doors. It changes a child's personality. A child is resentful, negative—or thankful. Thankful children want to give, they radiate happiness, they draw people."
—Sir John Templeton
