Love Once More-

A Workshop for Your Remarriage

Have you recently married again after one or both of you lost a spouse through death or divorce? Or are you preparing to enter a remarriage? Are you forming a stepfamily together? Remarried family life is more complex and often more challenging than for first-married families, even if only one of you was married before. Couples who learn about what makes remarriage unique, and develop the skills to meet these challenges together, are much better equipped to build strong marriages. Love Once More is a one-day workshop for couples preparing for a remarriage or in the first four years of remarriage. Grace and Growth Counseling Center will present Love Once More on Saturday, August 24th, 10:00AM-5:00PM at Holy Spirit Catholic Church. Cost is $150 per couple and includes lunch and books. No one will be turned away due to lack of funds. Registration is required. Please contact Linda Sweeney at (678) 235-3912 or LSweeney@graceandgrowth.org to register or for information.

Notes from The Catholic Foundation of North Georgia

The new tax laws provide a way for donors 70 1/2 or older to do a direct rollover from their IRA to the Parish. The money cannot come to you. The advantage of this law is you do not pay taxes on the amount you roll directly to the parish. You can use this method to do your annual giving or it could be used to contribute to a current campaign. If you would like to have the money go to the parish endowment fund, you can do a rollover directly to The Catholic Foundation of North Georgia for the parish endowment fund. This is very easy to do. The Foundation has a letter you can send to your IRA custodian in order to do this charitable rollover. For more information, contact Diane Duquette, Director of Gift Planning at The Catholic Foundation of North Georgia: dduquette@cfnga.org or (404) 497-9440. Visit the Foundation website to learn about the many methods that can be used to make a gift to the parish: www.cfngalegacy.org

Haitian Corner Réflexions

La première lecture et l'évangile nous parlent de visiteurs qui arrivent à l'improviste dans une maison. Cela nous arrive à nous aussi, surtout en cette période de vacances. Des parents ou amis de passage s'arrêtent chez nous. En général, nous aimons bien que cela soit prévu mais si cela n'est pas le cas, nous faisons tout notre possible pour les accueillir de notre mieux et leur témoigner ainsi toute notre amitié. Dans les textes de ce dimanche, c'est Dieu lui-même qui s'invite chez Abraham puis chez Marthe et Marie. L'accueil qu'il y a reçu nous renvoie à nous-mêmes. Comment allons-nous accueillir Dieu dans notre vie ?

L'Evangile nous montre Jésus pendant sa montée vers Jérusalem. En cours de route, il fait une halte chez Marthe et Marie. Chacune l'accueille de son mieux. Marthe donne le meilleur d'elle-même au service de la table. Marie reste au pied du Seigneur pour l'écouter. Ne nous trompons pas sur le message de cet évangile. Son but n'est pas seulement de nous donner des consignes sur l'hospitalité. Ce qu'il veut surtout nous faire découvrir c'est que Dieu est là. Il frappe à notre porte et il attend que nous lui ouvrons. C'est ce qui apparaît aussi dans la 1ère lecture. A travers ces trois mystérieux visiteurs qui sont accueillis par Abraham, c'est le Seigneur qui demande l'hospitalité et qui vient s'asseoir à la table de celui qui veut bien le recevoir.

C'est donc cet invité de marque qui est au centre de la 1ère lecture et de l'évangile. Nous le retrouvons tout au long de la Bible. Il se tient aussi à la porte et il frappe. Bien sûr, il ne va pas forcer notre liberté ; mais il attend de chacun de nous une réponse libre et aimante, une réponse qui vienne d'abord de notre cœur.

 “The trouble is that rich people, well-to-do people, very often don't really know who the poor are; and that is why we can forgive them, for knowledge can only lead to love, and love to service. And so, if they are not touched by them, it's because they do not know them.” —Mother Teresa
