The Good Times Are Killing Me

Our Lady of Mercy Catholic High School performs The Good Times Are Killing Me by Lynda Barry on October 4/5 at 6:30PM. Travel back in time to the 1960's and the era of rock n' roll and the Civil Rights Movement. Interspersed with songs from the era, two twelve year old best friends, one black and one white, stand by each other through upheaval and tragedy, in spite of each family's disapproval. However, racial peer pressure eventually drives a wedge between the girls. Adult tickets are $8, non-OLM students $5. Current OLM students and OLM family pass holder are admitted for free.

Archdiocesan Hispanic Ministries Collection

The Archdiocese of Atlanta is blessed and enriched by the presence of a diverse, vibrant and growing Hispanic/Latino community both resident and migrant. Their presence among us is a great source of hope as well as a challenge. We embrace this challenge with a renewed apostolic zeal and a missionary spirit as we seek ways to promote and facilitate their full participation into the life and mission of the Church, which is also their Church. Next weekend, the archdiocese has designated the second collection to Hispanic Ministries. All contributions will stay in the Archdiocese to help all the established Hispanic ministries. Please be generous.
