Notes from The Catholic Foundation of North Georgia

Why make the parish beneficiary of your IRA?
 When a parish is beneficiary of an IRA the money goes directly to the parish or the parish endowment fund and no taxes are due. If an IRA is left to your children, they will owe taxes on it. It is better to leave insurance to the children and the IRA to the parish. For additional information on gifts of IRA's, visit our website: www.cfnga.org or contact Diane Duquette, Director of Gift Planning at The Catholic Foundation, (404) 497-9440 or dduquette@cfnga.org.

Praying Pacem in Terris

There is every indication at the present time that these aims and ideals are giving rise to various demands concerning the juridical organization of States. The first is this: that a clear and precisely worded charter of fundamental human rights be formulated and incorporated into the State's general constitutions. Secondly, each State must have a public constitution, couched in juridical terms, laying down clear rules relating to the designation of public officials, their reciprocal relations, spheres of competence and prescribed methods of operation. The final demand is that relations between citizens and public authorities be described in terms of rights and duties. It must be clearly laid down that the principal function of public authorities is to recognize, respect, co-ordinate, safeguard and promote citizens' rights and duties.
