Archbishop Wilton Gregory recently said that "Domestic violence occurs in affluent homes as well as in poor ones. It can be physical and verbal. It speaks every language and can be found in every cultural context. It deserves our attention, our prayers and our resolve to address it." The Archdiocesan Mass for Domestic Violence Awareness Month will be celebrated by Bishop Luis Zarama and hosted by Holy Cross Church on Saturday, October 25th at 5:00PM. Holy Cross is located at 3175 Hathaway Court, NE, Atlanta 30341. Mass will be interpreted in American Sign Language. For information, contact justpeace@archatl.com or (404) 920-7898.

Notes from The Catholic Foundation of North Georgia

We cannot serve two masters: When our minds are on things of this world, we do not think about philanthropy or giving to the parish from our estates; but when we have a conversion of heart and realize all we have are gifts from God, we begin to think about how we steward those gifts. How can those gifts be used to help others? When making our wills, we want to make sure our family is provided for but also consider your parish as part of your family. A gift from your estate to the parish endowment fund could help many parish ministries for years to come. To learn more about leaving assets to the parish, visit www.cfnga.org or contact Diane Duquette, Director of Gift Planning at The Catholic Foundation, dduquette@cfnga.org, (404) 497-9440.

Praying Pacem in Terris

We must, however, reject the view that the will of the individual or the group is the primary and only source of a citizen's rights and duties, and of the binding force of political constitutions and the government's authority. But the aspirations We have mentioned are a clear indication of the fact that men, increasingly aware nowadays of their personal dignity, have found the incentive to enter government service and demand constitutional recognition for their own inviolable rights. Not content with this, they are demanding, too, the observance of constitutional procedures in the appointment of public authorities, and are insisting that they exercise their office within this constitutional framework.
