Now and at the Hour of Our Death Seminar

Flowing from Sacred Scripture as well as the Church's living Tradition, Catholics believe in the sacred continuum of life: life that is sacred, social and eternal. How can we, as individuals, approach death and prepare for it in a way that is wise, hopeful, prayerful and healthy? Understanding that death is a moment of grace when we are touched by the hand of God, Holy Spirit Catholic Church is pleased to offer a Now and at the Hour of Our Death Seminar on Saturday, November 2nd, 9:15AM-2:30PM, in McDonough Hall. We will discuss various ways in which we can spiritually and practically prepare for our own death or the death of a family member, including information about Catholic advance directives, estate planning, insurance, planning a Funeral Liturgy and Catholic burial options. The workshop is free and open to the general public. Light refreshments and boxed lunch will be provided. Please pre-register by October 30th by contacting the parish at (404) 252-4513 or www.hsccatl.com.

Go to the website: www.cfnga.org and click on Planned Giving then click on Plan Your Will. You will create a free and secure account to which you can save material and return to at your convenience. When you are finished filling out the information, you can create a PDF and print it out to take to your attorney to complete your will. When writing out final plans for your family, remember to include the parish as part of your family. Think of the time that is spent at the parish with people you love and ministries you support. If you need help with how to word this, please contact Diane Duquette at dduquette@cfnga.org or (404) 497-9440. Don't forget when your will is made to give copies to the executor of the will and other key people.
