Haitian Corner

En ce 3ème dimanche du temps Pascal, l'Eglise nous propose le récit des apparitions de Jésus sur les rives du lac de Tibériade. C'était après la Passion : Jésus avait été jugé, flagellé puis mis à mort sur une croix. Au moment de son procès, Pierre avait renié trois fois son maître. Complètement désespéré, il décide, avec ses compagnons, de reprendre son ancien métier. C'est là que Jésus les rejoint et se manifeste à eux. Il le fait d'une manière discrète. Il se rend présent à leur vie quotidienne d'une manière naturelle. Après leur avoir demandé s'ils avaient du poisson, il leur demande de jeter les filets sur la droite de la barque. Le résultat est tellement extraordinaire qu'ils ne peuvent remonter le filet.

Cette pêche miraculeuse, tout comme la multiplication des pains, nous montre la surabondance des dons de Dieu. Ces 153 poissons représentent toutes les espèces connues à l'époque. Cette pêche symbolise l'univers entier que le Christ veut rassasier. Elle est le signe d'une intervention qui dépasse toutes les forces humaines. C'est la marque du Dieu vivant. C'est aussi l'annonce de la mission qui sera confiée à Pierre. Lui qui, par trois fois, avait renié le Christ se verra pardonné. Il deviendra le berger du troupeau que Jésus va lui confier. Mais rien ne sera possible sans un amour inconditionnel envers le Christ.

Comme Pierre, nous nous jetons à l'eau pour venir à toi, Seigneur. Donne-nous de partager notre espérance et de témoigner de ton amour pour notre humanité.
