Perpetual Adoration Retreat at Monastery

June 17th-21st. "Eucharist: The Source and Summit of Christian Life" will be led by Fr. Gerard Gross with time spent loving and adoring Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament, day and night, throughout this retreat. Fr. Gerard will talk about bringing the power of that Adoration into every corner of our lives, especially our families, recreation, places of study, and work. Jesus longs for us to treat all persons as created in His image and likeness. St. Benedict says that we should be, "treating the tools of the monastery like the vessels of the altar!" Fr. Gerard will seek to make this real and not just pious talk! retreat@trappist.net

Planned Gifts can help the building fund. You can leave the remainder of your estate, a specific dollar amount or a percentage of your estate in your will to go to our current campaign. You may ask what if that money has already been raised when I die. You can put in your will that if the above is no longer needed then whatever you are leaving can go to the parish endowment fund to help the parish for years to come. If you have questions about how to word this or how to simply do a codicil (an amendment) to your will, please contact Dianne Duquette, Director of Gift Planning at The Catholic Foundation of North Georgia: dduquette@cfnga.org or (404) 497-9440. Visit the Foundation website to learn about the many ways you can make a gift to the parish: www.cfngalegacy.org. Fête du Saint Sacrement

Pour comprendre le sens de cette fête, il faut se rappeler que le mot Eucharistie signifie Action de grâce. Quand nous venons à la messe le dimanche, c'est d'abord pour rendre grâce que Seigneur. Nous lui disons merci pour toutes les merveilles qu'il réalise tout au long de notre vie. La fête de ce jour met à l'honneur la présence réelle de Jésus Christ sous les espèces du pain et du vin consacrés. C'est une occasion pour nous de méditer sur ce cadeau miraculeux qu'est le Corps du Christ offert pour notre salut dans l'Eucharistie. Quand nous entrons dans une église, c'est lui qui nous accueille et c'est d'abord vers lui que nous devons nous tourner et non vers le voisin de droite ou de gauche. En Jésus, c'est Dieu qui est présent pour nous combler de son amour.

Quand nous lisons l'Evangile, nous découvrons que toute la vie de Jésus est une action de grâce. En ce jour, notre regard se porte principalement vers le soir du Jeudi Saint; "Il prit du pain, puis ayant rendu grâce, il dit: Ceci est mon Corps livré pour vous" (2ème lecture). Ce geste manifeste la générosité du cœur de Jésus. Il a su saisir les circonstances les plus douloureuses pour aller jusqu'au bout de l'amour. C'est ce que nous indique le chant: "Le Seigneur nous a aimés comme on n'a jamais aimé." Quand nous allons communier, nous recevons en nous le dynamisme de l'amour qu'il a manifesté lors de la dernière Cène. L'Eucharistie nous introduit dans le Royaume de l'Amour. Elle nous rend capables de vaincre toutes les circonstances les plus injustes, les plus douloureuses et les plus humiliantes. La joie de Jésus sera dans notre cœur si nous sommes unis à lui.

Chaque dimanche, nous nous sommes rassemblés pour nous nourrir de la Parole et du corps du Christ. Le Curé d'Ars disait que nous n'en sommes pas dignes mais nous en avons besoin. Il s'agit d'une nourriture absolument essentielle. Comme les juifs au temps de Jésus, nous avons peut-être du mal à comprendre. Mais comme Pierre, nous pouvons dire: "A qui irions-nous, Seigneur, tu as les paroles de la vie éternelle." Soyons dans la joie chaque fois que débute une Eucharistie. Et surtout, ne nous y habituons pas.

En célébrant cette Eucharistie, nous nous tournons vers toi Seigneur. Aide-nous à entrer plus pleinement dans ce mouvement de don total de nous-mêmes avec toi et par toi. Que notre don soit de plus en plus à la mesure du tien, toi qui as tout donné de lui-même pour notre vie et pour la gloire du Père.
