Thoughts on Stewardship

...Now, we will see that our "giving" is not about what of my stuff am I going to give to the Lord, it is about what of God's stuff am I going to make available for His purposes. With this proper reorientation of our relationship to our stuff, we are now free to have the attitude that can say quite literally, "What is mine is yours and you can have it." Because we understand that none of it is ours in the first place. —www.stewardshipministries.org

Notes from The Catholic Foundation of North Georgia

Did you know you can donate Real Estate to The Catholic Foundation of North Georgia to benefit the parish? The Foundation follows a due diligence process to determine if the property can be accepted. Some people have left their home to the parish in their will and some have donated their home and property during their life. You will get a nice tax deduction when you donate real estate. When the Foundation sells the property, it invests the proceeds into the parish endowment fund. If you would like more details on this type of charitable gift, please contact Nancy Coveny, Director of Gift Planning at The Catholic Foundation of North Georgia: (404) 497-9440. Visit the planned giving page on the Foundation website: www.cfnga.org for additional methods of making donations to the parish from your assets.

The 14th century anchoress and teacher of prayer is now recognized as one of Christianity's most masterful and comforting spiritual guides. Using "Revelations". Retreat participants will meditate on the key insights into God's relationship to Creation as revealed to Julian expressly for the sake of her "fellow Christians": God's goodness active in all that has been made, humankind's partnership with God through life in the Trinity, and Jesus' promise to us "that all shall be well." July 20th-23rd (midweek) at the Trappist Monastery of the Holy Spirit, 2625 Highway 212, SW, Conyers. Visit www.trappist.net or contact (770) 760-0959 or retreat@trappist.net to make a reservation.

Stewardship— A Disciple's Response

June 21st $6,654.62 Children's Offertory $61.58
St. Paul explains the "divine economy" of stewardship— "The relief of others ought not to impoverish you; there should be a certain equality. Your plenty at the present time should supply their need so that their surplus may in turn one day supply your need."
