Year of Faith

The Holy See declares a "Year of Faith" to begin on October 11, 2012-November 24, 2013. Pope Benedict XVI describes the Year of Faith as, "A summons to an authentic and renewed conversion to the Lord, the One Savior of the world" (Porta Fidei 6). This special year is an opportunity for all Catholics to experience a conversion-to turn to Jesus and enter into a deeper relationship with him. The pope has described this conversion as opening the "door of faith" (Acts 14:27), first opened at our baptism. During this special year, we are called to open the door again, walk through, rediscover and renew our relationship with Christ and his Church. In Atlanta, the Year of Faith will be enhanced by including a special emphasis on Mary, Our Blessed Mother, who is Faith Personified. All are invited to join Archbishop Gregory to open the year with a Celebration of the Eucharist on October 11th at 12:10PM at the Cathedral of Christ the King. In the coming weeks, there will be additional ways to celebrate the Year of Faith in the Archdiocese, including a Year of Faith mobile device APP, a website, a video contest and local celebrations of our Blessed Mother's example of Faith.

Haitian Corner
Un Dieu libérateur

Les lectures bibliques de ce dimanche nous révèlent un Dieu libérateur. Sous la conduite de Moïse, Dieu a libéré son peuple de l'esclavage d'Egypte. Le livre des Nombres (1ère lecture) nous raconte la suite de l'Exode, le séjour des Hébreux au désert. Pour Moïse, la charge est lourde à porter. Les hébreux récriminent régulièrement contre lui. Alors, pour le soulager dans cette charge, Dieu lui adjoint 70 hommes auxquels il donne une part de son Esprit. Mais un problème se pose : deux hommes, Eldad et Médad se mettent à prophétiser dans un cadre qui n'est pas prévu. Josué voudrait les arrêter. Mais on ne peut pas empêcher l'Esprit de Dieu de souffler où il veut. Personne n'en a le monopole. C'est vrai aussi pour nous les chrétiens : l'Esprit Saint n'agit pas que dans l'Eglise. Il intervient aussi dans le cœur de ceux qui sont d'une autre religion et dans celui de tous les hommes.

Dans l'Evangile, c'est un peu la même question qui est posée. Il faut se rappeler que saint Marc écrit son Evangile après Pâques. Les communautés chrétiennes ont chacune leurs particularités. Les différences entre les unes et les autres peuvent provoquer des frictions. On a du mal à accepter qu'un disciple appartenant à une communauté puisse intervenir dans une autre. Alors Marc voudrait leur rappeler qu'ils sont tous dans le même camp. C'est vrai quelle que soit la communauté dont ils font partie. Ils rendent le même témoignage au Christ Sauveur. On ne peut que s'en réjouir.

C'est important pour nous aujourd'hui. Le Christ voudrait nous apprendre à respecter ceux qui sont différents de nous, ceux qui sont d'une autre religion et ceux qui n'en ont pas. Il y a parmi eux des gens très généreux qui ont le souci d'accueillir et de partager. Un jour, Jésus a dit : "J'ai eu faim et vous m'avez donné à manger... J'étais étranger et vous m'avez accueilli." Cette parole ne concerne pas que les chrétiens. Elle vaut pour l'humanité entière, y compris pour ceux qui n'ont jamais entendu parler de Dieu. Tout acte de bonté, même le plus élémentaire ouvre la porte du ciel. Il nous adjoint au nombre immense des élus de Dieu.

Dans l'Evangile, le Christ nous montre un chemin de conversion. Il nous demande de couper et de trancher. Il ne s'agit pas de se mutiler mais de renoncer à la soif des possessions et à la convoitise. La main qui fait chuter, c'est celle qui s'agrippe aux richesses matérielles, aux satisfactions et aux désirs immédiats. Le pied représente la liberté de l'homme qui peut aller et venir. Le péché, c'est quand on refuse de marcher à la suite de Jésus ; c'est quand on veut vivre sa vie sans Dieu en ne comptant que sur nos seules forces. L'œil qui entraîne au péché, c'est celui qui se laisse séduire. Mais la vue peut nous tromper et nous faire désirer ce qui est mauvais pour nous.
