United with the Catholics of the world at the Table of the Lord, we recommit ourselves to our vocation, through Baptism, to be missionaries. Our prayers and Eucharistic celebration next Sunday are directed in a special way toward our brothers and sisters throughout the world who are waiting to hear the joyous "Good News" of Jesus. Please be extra generous as this collection will be divided between three very important needs.

Notes From The Catholic Foundation of North Georgia

You keep saying you are going to get a Will. Did you know that between 60% and 70% of Americans die without a Will. The Catholic Foundation of North Georgia has made it easy for you to plan your Will. Simply go to www.cfngalegacy.org and click on Plan Your Will. The program is free and confidential. It will walk you through everything you need to think about and be aware of when making your Will. Once you have worked through this program you can print the document to take to your attorney. Pre-planning should save you money and once your Will is made it will give you and your family peace of mind. When planning, remember that the parish is part of your family, so please include the parish in your Will. For additional information about Will planning or making other gifts from your estate, call Diane Duquette, Director of Gift Planning at The Catholic Foundation of North Georgia, (404) 497-9440 or email dduquette@cfnga.org

Catholics Caring for Creation Day of Reflection

Do you recycle? Buy organics or fair trade? How does that fit in your Catholic faith? Grow your understanding of what it means to be a good steward of God's creation by joining other Catholics at a half-day retreat at the Monastery in Conyers Saturday, October 20th, 9:30AM-2:00PM. We will take a guided walk through the woods, learn about green burial and reflect on our call to stewardship. All are welcome, but RSVP is required. There is a $30 fee for the event that includes a boxed lunch. Please RSVP to Nancy Sestak, nsestak@mindspring.com for more information and to reserve a spot.

Lyke House's 13th Anniversary

The 13th Anniversary of the dedication of Lyke House-The Catholic Center at AUC will be commemorated October 18th-21st. This year, the celebration will be different as well as historic in two ways; we will celebrate not only the anniversary, but the ordination to the priesthood of our first baptismal candidate, Fr. Christopher Rhodes. Thursday, October 18th, the staff and faculty from the AUC are invited to join us for an Open House, 5:00-7:00PM. Friday, October 19th, members of neighboring parish communities are invited to a light repast 6:00-8:00PM. Saturday, October 20th, Lyke House students will participate in a Day of Service. Sunday Mass at 10:15AM will be observed with Fr. Rhodes, celebrant.

Haitian Corner
Le vrai trésor

La première lecture nous a rapporté un extrait du 2ème livre de la Sagesse. Ce texte a été écrit au cours du 1er siècle avant Jésus Christ. Il fait l'éloge de la Sagesse. Sa conviction est très forte : seule la sagesse conduit le monde dans la direction voulue par Dieu. Le sage, c'est celui qui sait mener sa barque contre vents et tempêtes. Cette lecture nous dit que la sagesse est bien plus précieuse que la richesse. Sans elle, la vie n'a pas de sens. Cet éloge de la sagesse est placé dans la bouche de Salomon qui vient de succéder à son père David. Il se rend compte de la très lourde charge qui l'attend. Alors, il demande à Dieu de lui donner un cœur ouvert et attentif. C'est ainsi qu'il pourra recevoir la sagesse qui saura le guider dans le gouvernement de son peuple.

Cette recherche de la sagesse est fondamentale. C'est comme un trésor extraordinaire. Mais pour l'acquérir, il faut être prêt à vendre tout. Cette sagesse est le fruit de la prière. Elle n'est pas une conquête de la raison mais un don de Dieu. Il est sans cesse présent et agissant dans la vie des hommes. Il n'attend qu'une chose, c'est que nous lui ouvrons la porte de notre cœur.

A côté de cet éloge de la Sagesse, nous avons celui de la Parole de Dieu. C'est l'extrait de la lettre aux Hébreux dans la seconde lecture. C'est une parole qui ne se contente pas de nous instruire. Elle nous révèle à nous-mêmes tels que Dieu nous voit. Elle discerne ce qu'il y a de plus intime au cœur de chacun. Il nous faut absolument la prendre au sérieux car elle vient de Dieu. Elle est même « la Parole vivante de Dieu ». Si nous l'accueillons, elle devient pour nous « source de vie ». Si nous lui résistons, elle nous brûle. Elle fait naître en nous la souffrance et l'inquiétude. Si nous l'accueillons, elle illumine notre vie. Elle nous donne le courage et la force de progresser sur le chemin du bien et de l'amour.

Voilà donc ces deux premières lectures qui nous parlent de la sagesse et de la Parole. Avec l'Evangile, nous faisons un pas de plus : Jésus nous est présenté comme Sagesse et Parole de Dieu. Nous l'entendons parler de tout quitter pour le suivre.
