National Black & Indian Mission Collection

Next week, our parish will take up the 134th National Black and Indian Mission Collection. Our support of this collection helps build the Church in African American, Native American, and Alaska Native communities from coast to coast. Schools, parish religious education programs, and diocesan ministries depend on your generosity to help them spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ!

Adult Enrichment

Many around the world have grappled with the urgent questions of the environment and ecology by focusing on political and ideological solutions that may be noble and good, but are often lacking in deeper meaning and purpose. In Creation, a six-part series, Producer and Host, Deacon Pedro Guevara-Mann joins with a Franciscan Sister, Environmental Scientist and Professor, Sr. Damien Marie Savino, FSE, on a quest to answer the deeper questions about ecology and the environment. Creation presents the ecological crisis that is directly related to the ethical challenge of eliminating poverty and advocating human rights. The dignity and rights of human beings are intimately and integrally related to the beauty and the rights of the earth itself. After all, who will dare to speak for the voiceless resources of our planet? Who will step up to protect the silent diversity of species? Will our generation accept responsibility for pushing our environment over the tipping point? Join us at Adult Enrichment as we seek answers to the question: Why should we care about the environment? Adult Enrichment meets Sundays at 10:15AM in the first classroom on the right.

Thank You

I want to thank Fr. Bryan, the parishioners of Sts. Peter & Paul, Carol Craft & the women of St. Vincent de Paul Circle who sponsored the 2016 Christmas Bag Program for Clayton Transitional Center and Mercy Outreach. It is so important for the men & women we work with to know someone cares. Your heart is surely in the right place to do the work of a servant. With the donation of toiletry items, we were able to serve 500 inmates. The Christmas Bag Program happens because of people like you & your church. Thank you all so much. Superintendent Lester McCard and Assistant Michael Cannon would also like you to know that without volunteers we would not have the opportunity to give the people the services that you provide. Thanks for taking the time to be a part of this facility.

Sincerely, Chaplain Sue DeBord
