2017 Archbishop's Annual Appeal

This year, the theme of the Appeal is, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself". One way that we can show our love to our neighbor is by offering our generous financial support to our parish and to our archdiocese. After we reach our parish Annual Appeal goal, the archdiocese returns 100% of each additional dollar received from our parishioners to us for use in our parish.

Amount Paid: $49,003.82 # of pledges: 120

October 22nd after the 8:30 Mass, there will be a reception in the Parish Office for Josie Mitchell. Ms. Josie led our RCIA program for over three decades. Her support for those who are seeking answers to their faith questions has been tireless. Everyone, especially those who have come into the church under her guidance, is invited to join us as we say Thank You for Josie's commitment to our RCIA program.

Adult Enrichment

Next Weekend: Are there habits that you wish to stop (anger or gossip) or habits to add (such as praying more, volunteering)? Dr. Jeana Griffith, Ph.D. will have suggestions on success of your goals. Dr. Griffith is Associate Director of Psychological and Health Services at Georgia State University. Adult Enrichment begins at 10:15AM Sunday in the first classroom on the right.

"Share the Journey"

Ecumenical Prayer Gathering

On September 27, 2017, Pope Francis launched a two-year global campaign called "Share the Journey." Locally, leaders of faith communities from around the north Georgia area and their congregations will join Archbishop Wilton Gregory and the Catholic faithful for an interfaith community prayer gathering at the Clarkston Community Center at 10:00AM on Wednesday, October 11th.

Second Collection Next Weekend

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) established a combined national collection for World Missions, the Church in Latin America, and the Church in Central & Eastern Europe. This collection supports the Church's works of social justice, evangelization and education, both domestically and around the globe. Jesus reminds us that the two greatest commandments are to love God with our whole heart, our whole mind, and our whole soul; and to love our neighbor as ourselves. This collection offers us an opportunity to help our neighbors in light of the Gospel. In doing so, we act as faithful stewards of the gifts God has given us.

Mass of Healing

"He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that made us whole, and with his stripes we are healed" (Is 53:5). The Archdiocese of Atlanta invites everyone who has been wronged by the Catholic Church in any way to a Mass of Healing with Archbishop Wilton D. Gregory on October 11th, 7:00PM at the Cathedral of Christ the King. A reception will follow in Kenny Hall. For more information, contact Sue Stubbs at sstubbs@archatl.com or (404) 885-7459.
