2018 Archbishop's Annual Appeal

In the gospel of Luke, Christ reminds us that everything we are and everything we have comes to us as a gift from God. We must grow our gifts and return them generously to be used in God's work. Gifts of our time, talent and treasure to our parish and our archdiocese are an important part of our commitment to stewardship of God's gifts. Those who have also contributed to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal are providing critical resources necessary to continue the ministries and services of the archdiocese. On behalf of Archbishop Wilton Gregory and the many beneficiaries of the Annual Appeal, thank you for faithfully making your pledge payments. Every gift is important and appreciated. "The problem is not in being rich. In fact there are many rich people in the Bible who are blessed by God. The problem is with our attitude towards worldly things. Society tells us that only things can make us important and bring us true happiness. We have forsaken God for our possessions."
