The event will once again be at the Renaissance Atlanta Waverly Hotel and Convention Center. National and local speakers will present workshops that focus on catechetical methods and Church teachings that will equip catechists for effectively Communicating the Catholic Message. Workshops will be available in English and Spanish and help catechists earn credit for certification. Registration will open in early 2019. Early registration is $25. Priests, deacons and seminarians may attend at no charge. For additional information, please visit the Atlanta Catechist Conference website at https://atlcatechistconference.com/.

Social Action Writers Needed

We all have a voice in the life of our Church. Justice & Peace Ministries for the Archdiocese of Atlanta challenges you to share your voice. If you have a talent for writing and passion for social action, we are interested in your contributions for a monthly column called Catholic Social Thought. We plan to use this column in our JustPeace newsletter as well as share it with parishes to use in their bulletins and social media. If you are interested in contributing, please contact Kat Doyle, Director of Justice & Peace Ministries, at kdoyle@archatl.com for a schedule of topics.

Charitable Remainder Trust: Setting up a Charitable Remainder Trust is a way to sell an asset such as your home and not pay capital gains tax. You can also receive income for life or a period of years, receive a tax deduction, and at your death, the remainder of the trust will go to your parish endowment fund. For more information about Charitable Remainder Trusts, please contact Juliet Greco at The Catholic Foundation of North Georgia: jgreco@cfnga.org or (404) 497-9440.
