2019 Archbishop's Annual Appeal

This year the theme of the Archbishop's Annual Appeal is "Go, therefore, and make disciples." One way we can show our love to our brothers and sisters in faith is to generously respond to the Archbishop's request for a pledge to the 2019 Appeal. While much of the Church's ministry takes place in our parishes, we also come together as an archdiocesan Church to carry out critical services and ministries that have impact beyond any one parish. Your support for the Archbishop's Annual Appeal helps bring the spiritual and corporal works of mercy to life in your parish as a part of our overall effort to spread and deepen faith in the Merciful Lord throughout the archdiocese. Through your generous gifts we can continue the work we were called to do as Christians: educate our seminarians, support our retired priests, provide catechesis to our children and protect the rights of the unborn. Please be generous in your response. For more information, or to donate online, go to appeal.archatl.com.

Stewardship-A Disciple's Response

Jan. 20th $7,680.23 Children's Offertory $36.00
Too often in the church, we only talk about money when it's time for fundraising and we call it "stewardship". But true stewardship is a message that can change hearts. It's about a transformation that takes place in a person's mind as it relates to attitudes about earthly possessions, and responsibilities to manage, to steward, all that God has blessed us with.

The Black Catholic Revolution & Its Reverberations, Fifty Years Later

Two weeks after the assassination of Martin Luther King in 1968, Black priests declared the Catholic Church in the United States "a white racist institution." This provocative proclamation sparked a revolution that is known as the Black Catholic Movement, one with the potential to forever change the face of U.S. Catholicism. Dr. Matthew Cressler will unpack the history of this movement and illuminate its implications for us today. Thursday, February 7th, 7:00PM at St. Thomas More Church, Mulhern Hall. Dr. Matthew J. Cressler is assistant professor of religious studies at the College of Charleston (South Carolina). His teaching and research areas include African American religions, Catholic studies, religion in America, and theory in the study of religion with a special interest in the intersection of religion, race, and nationalism. Dr. Cressler specializes in Black Catholic history and has published Authentically Black and Truly Catholic: The Rise of Black Catholicism in the Great Migration (NYU Press, 2017).

Human Trafficking: Conquered

Human trafficking is modern-day slavery that involves the use of force, fraud, or coercion to obtain some type of labor or commercial sex act. It is estimated that human trafficking generates many billions of dollars of profit per year, second only to drug trafficking as the most profitable form of crime. It is a $290+million illegal industry in Georgia. In our ongoing effort to combat this evil, Justice & Peace Ministries presents Human Trafficking: Conquered, a one-hour workshop aimed at training supporters of reigning MLS Cup Champions Atlanta United to learn the signs of human trafficking and the actions you can take to stop it. Because we know Atlanta United supporters have just as much passion for our city and communities as they do the club, we invite all members of supporters groups and anyone who stands with Atlanta United to attend. Supporters are also invited to bring your Atlanta United scarf to the presentation. The workshop is on Sunday, February 10th at 1:30PM in the Terrace Halls at the Chancery, 2401 Lake Park Drive SE, Smyrna 30080. For more information and to RSVP, please contact Jayna Hoffacker, Justice & Peace Ministries Program Assistant, at jhoffacker@archatl.com or (404) 920-7898.
