For just $10, your 6th-8th grader gets two national Catholic speakers, great music, lunch and a cool t-shirt! It's also a great way to interact with about 800 other Catholic teens/tweens from around the Archdiocese and celebrate the Closing Mass with Archbishop Gregory. Cleared adult chaperones are needed too. If you are interested, please contact Tina at tina@stspandp.com. Registration deadline is February 13th, so don't delay!

Go Red for Women's Heart Health

KPCLA is joining with the American Heart Association this weekend to bring awareness to the leading killer of women— heart disease and stroke. Our ladies will be wearing our "Red Dress Day" pins today to show our support for women's health. Stop by our "Sweets for Your Sweetie" Bake Sale for some great treats and some heart-healthy tips to pass on to your favorite ladies! "Go Red for Women" and show your commitment to reducing risk, improving health, and saving women's lives. We encourage you to take action during the month of February and beyond by adopting two or more of these healthy behaviors— Move More. Eat Smart. Manage Blood Pressure. Learn more by checking out #GoRedGetFit Community on Facebook.
